Getting Together Is . . .

How did we make this year together with people who had different dreams?
By really needing one another to help us through life's difficult scenes.
We all have opened up our eyes
to understand each human's care, we've dug down deep where beauty lies to find that love was waiting there.
We need not criticize one another but rather call each man our brother.

Discovering Others

The reality of the other person is not in what he reveals to you, but in what he cannot reveal to you. Therefore, if you would understand him, listen not to what he says but rather to what he does not say.

TO GIVE THE
VERY BEST

New Experiences

Discovering
Reaching out
Opening new doors but not closing the old ones behind us.
Meeting new friends and not forgetting the old.
Appreciating the present but never regretting the past.
Looking forward to the future but never burning the bridges behind us.

Colorful Memories

Memories
pressed between the pages of my mind.
Memories
sweetened through the ages just like wine.
Quiet thoughts come floating down and settle softly to the ground
like golden autumn leaves around my feet.
I touch them and they burst about with sweet memories of.
holding hands and red bouquets and twilights trimmed in purple haze and laughing eyes and simple ways and quiet nights and gentle days with you.

Discovering Myself

I came in hope of finding a way to expand my own reflection to make it more than what it is.

The journey back
is longer than the forward run.

Making the Good Times Yourself

I've been going a long time now along the way I've learned some things you have to make the good times yourself take the little times and make them into big times and save the times that are alright for the ones that aren't so good.
I've never been able to push the clouds away by myself.
Help me,
Please.

The Administration

Mr. Herzog, Board of Directors, Set Policies

For the second year the student body of CLHS was led by Principal Guenther Herzog. Under the direction of Mr. Herzog the students have seen changes in their school life this year, including the Independant Study Program and the revised dress code. These innovations in the programs at CLHS are the result of the need for a better educational system for students in the ever-changing future. Aiding Principal Herzog in making these decisions is the Board of Directors. Besides the ones pictured below, the other members of the board not present for the picture are: E. Westrick, R. Gersmehl, T. Von Deylon, W. Hoeppner, W. Roesener, R. Bradtmiller, R. Limbach, H. Fritze, R. Haas, A. Wyss, C. Powell, V. Bultemeier, Dr. Schule, W. Berning, H. Zollinger, Dr. Laker, H. The cooks, from left to right, are: Mrs. Macke, Mrs. Kruse, Mrs. Zich, Mrs. Dauss, Mrs. Bredemeyer, Mrs. Weisheit, Cafeteria Manager Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Stein, and Mrs. Paschka.

This year a popular new system was introduced in the cafeteria which offered the students and faculty more selection. The menus were posted a week beforehand and instead of one meal, there were two different meals to choose from. As always, Mrs. Hall and her staff did a wonderful job of preparing nutritious, good-tasting lunches. The task of taking care of all the paperwork was once again smoothly handled by the efficient, hard-working secretaries.

The men behind the scenes, the custodians, did an excellent job of keeping the school clean and in running order. To all of these people, a big thanks!

Academic Life

Religion Gives Concordians a Unique Oneness with Christ

Mr. Walker teaches what he loves and loves what he teaches.

Professor Harms continually advises Mr. Kettles to quickly make a decision between heaven and hell, because there is no parking.

Religion classes here at Concordia attempted to help Cadets understand themselves and their relation to God. Many found what they were looking for with an informal atmosphere in the classroom. Others turned to chapel services and still others turned to private meditation in the chapel. Frosh delve into the Old Testament and Sophs the New Testament. Juniors studied church history and seniors put their faith to work in every day situations.

Mr. Gayer spent long hours preparing for his Physics class.

Independent Study New Way of Studying Science

Science is life and everything affecting life. It is a greater understanding of ourselves and the world around us. The exploration into the vast and fascinating universe we live in is an unending study. This year the students discovered facts for themselves independently. For most students the discoveries made and the new knowledge gained made all the hard work worthwhile. Teachers were always present to aid and assist with lectures, quizzes, and tests. With this new approach to studying, students learned the hows and whys for themselves—Discovery on your own is hard to forget!

Math: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow—Challenge

Algebra II students look on as Mr. Reinking explains.

Math is an important and often difficult facet of the high school life. One should not overlook its value. Thinking rationally is what it's all about. Here at Concordia students are offered a range of math from General Math to Analytical Geometry. Mathematics at Concordia not only strives to teach basic skills but challenges the student with greater questions.

Social Studies Relate Centuries of History

Mr. Baack developed a quest for Social Studies.

What's so funny? Don't answer that.

Mrs. Dickmeyer shared her knowledge of government with Cadets.

Social Studies Develops a New Awareness For Many Concordians

The Social Studies program, containing a wide variety of courses, deals with the study of mankind through his history, environment, government, and behavior. Government, U.S. History, and World Geography, required of all students, are just a few of the social studies courses offered. By becoming more involved and aware of our world's government, we can better prepare ourselves for the world of tomorrow.

New Literary Ideas are Examined and Evaluated

Acting out plays helps to understand plot.

English classes strived to broaden the student's knowledge of literature through concentrated study of classroom textbooks. Plays were studied and performed in class. Concordia offers English I through IV for the college bound student. Speech and Developmental Reading helped the student to gain a firmer grip on public speaking and private reading. Communication Media offered an understanding to the different levels of communication in this society. A new course offered this year was Contemporary Literature where the student studied different books and analyzed the theme, author, and the style of writing.

Terry, are you talking on that phone again!

The efficiency with which Mrs. Sharpenberg grades papers is astounding.

As he makes his point, Mr. Ramm moves in on his class.

Students Gain Useful Knowledge From Foreign Language Dept.

Three foreign languages were offered to Concordians this year, German, French, and Latin. All of the many German students studied under Mr. Falkenstern, while the French chores were expertly handled by Mr. Ramm. After a mid-year name change, Mrs. Sharpenberg continued her excellent instruction of the Latin classes. Through the study of a foreign language, students not only came into contact with other cultures, but also learned more about the origin and composition of the English language. The taped conversations of the language lab also gave students practical experience in oral comprehension.

These alert, intelligent students work hard in the language lab . . . sometimes.

With interested students like these, even the "dead" language comes alive.

Mrs. "O" prides herself in her swinging phys. ed. classes.

Concordia Phys. Ed. Classes Maintain Their High Quality.

Yelling, screaming, but dedicated (?!?) to expanding and improving their athletic prowess and coordination, come Concordia's physical education classes. With Mrs. Obermueller in charge of the girls again this year, there was no danger of anything less than quality in her classes. The same situation existed on the other side of the curtain, as veteran phys. ed. teachers, Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Massucci, expertly handled the rough, tough boys' classes. Without a doubt, gym at CLHS is the best around!

Come on, Berning! Let's see if you can wrestle like you play basketball.

What a body, Stan!

Talk about action?! These Concordia phys. ed. teams really move.

Varsity Band Specialty: Music, Music, Music!

It takes a special kind of person to be in band. One must be determined to be dedicated and determined to have fun. This organization, which provides much of Concordia's spirit, is not only the "booster of the ballgames", but is active annually in a Christmas and Spring concert. New uniforms have been the result of a lot of hard work. The band members are eagerly looking forward to a busy and fun-filled future awaiting them in the wonderful world of music.

Choral Department Loses Top-Notch Leader: Henke

The A Cappella Choir sang to many people during Mr. Henke's last year at Concordia. Besides singing at a number of churches throughout the city, they also appeared on television at Christmas and during Lent. The tour to Chicago was the highlight of the year. The Swingers sang their usual bevy of shows this year. The most exciting one, though, was singing the warm-up for President Nixon before a live audience of 12,000 plus a sizeable television audience. The Swingers stood wide-eyed as the President came up on their stage and shook hands with many of them. The Swingers took their second trip to Frankenmuth, Mich. and also sang at the Statehouse in Indianapolis. Through the year Mr. Henke was aided by the choir officers: S. Priebe, Pres.; M. Hesterman, V. Pres.; C. Anderson, Sec.; C. Blondell, Treas.; J. Atz, Crew Chief.

Artists in Action

Talent can be displayed in many ways, and one of the most varied is art. Interested students begin with Art I and later progress to Advanced Art. The department, headed by Mr. Heinrich, has always made it a point to produce and to produce at top notch. Concordia can certainly be proud of the fine work created by its Art students.

Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Home-Ec!

Home Economics is one of the most useful courses that a girl, hoping to be a homemaker, could take. It teaches the basics of home management along with the aspects of personal growth and appearance. Everything from cooking and sewing to interior decorating and child-care are included in its curriculum. Not only do the girls learn important values of life, but they also have fun in the process. After all, a touch of happiness added to the work certainly makes it worthwhile!

Service Jobs Give Needed Experience

Typing, filing, and running errands were just a few jobs involved in service work. Students had the opportunity to sign up to assist in either Library, Audio Visual, or Office Departments. Library service consisted of two or three workers every hour helping Mr. Pasche with typing and keeping the shelves in shape. When a record player, film strip, or movie projector were needed, Mr. Huebschman's A.V. boys were there to help. Often called attendance girls, our office workers did more than record absences and tardies. Mrs. Graft kept them busy filing student records and delivering locker messages.

A New System of Independent Study Time is Tried

After students find they cannot discuss in the library they sometimes go to Room 201. These students are found there discussing Art.

The students of Concordia participated in a new system in their academic life known as IST. Independent Study Time provided students with an hour in which they could do almost anything. It gave them a chance to complete undone work, take on new and different projects, help in Biology and P.E. Departments, or just relax before classes. With this new freedom came a great deal of responsibility which most students proved they could adequately handle.

Some students even find time to study during their IST.

Skating even becomes a popular sport!

Varsity Gridmen Rebuild with Underclassmen

The Varsity Football team had a very inconsistent season with the blight of constant injuries. The varisty gridmen were led this year by individuals, Steve Shaw and a first-string All-City, All-State, and NEIC conference gridmen, Jack Florent. The Most Valuable Players were voted by the team; Bill Brandt, offensive back; Jack Florent, offensive linemen; and, Don Graft, defensive linemen. The team was led by Bill Brandt with an individual score of almost half the points scored by the squad and Jack Florent, an All-City gridmen. Through the many injuries the spirit and hard drive of the team combined to function as a rebuilding season which ended with a record of 2 wins and 8 losses. The team has much promise in coming years with the experience gained by strong underclassmen.

Meek.

The Reserve Football team under the leadership of Coaches Hoffman and Brackman broke the .500 mark this year. The team was led by co-captains Dean Doerffler and John Koeneman. Koeneman was also top scorer, scoring 30 points against opposing teams. Other outstanding players are as follows: outstanding offensive linemen, T. Witte and J. Koeneman; outstanding offensive back, M. Berning; outstanding defensive lineman, T. Witte; outstanding defensive back, M. Walpole; and the most improved player was P. Bruggeman. Overall, the team gained valuable experience which prepared them for varsity.

Frosh Football Shows Promise for Coming Years

The Frosh team has done one of the best jobs of getting together that any Freshman Football Team has done at Concordia. They surpassed last years Frosh by posting a winning season of 5—3. Also, during a season game the team beat the previous record of number of points scored in one game with a winning score of 50—6. The team, being put together by the coaching of Mr. Pinnow and Mr. Weiss, combined to function as a well-balanced team effort in a fine winning season. The team worked well together and shows much promise for coming years.

Harriers Cap Season with Victory in National Lutheran Postal Meet

" . . . and they're off!"

"A team cannot always be judged by its record." This statement is especially true for the 1970 Cross Country team which finished the regular season with a disappointing 5—8 record. Actually, the squad was a fairly strong, well-balanced team, with no less than seven returning lettermen. This fact was proved by the team's performances in the important post-season meets. Under the direction of Coaches Reinking and Mertins, the team finished third in the NEIAC and sixth in the large Sectional Meet. Concordia also participated in the first Lutheran High School Postal Meet this year. The CC men came through in this nationwide meet by taking First Place easily! Seniors Dave Heath and Eric Goeglein led the team to this victory, finishing second and third respectively. The outlook for next year is uncertain as there will be four lettermen returning. Much work is needed if the team is to do well next year.

Concordia's tennis team, coached by Mr. Ramm, continued its great record of winning seasons this year with an 11—0 mark. The team also compiled an impressive list of titles and statistics during the season, the direct result of each member's fine play. In city competition, the squad scored seven consecutive victories to win the city crown. Results of matches in the NEIAC were much the same, as the team finished in a tie for the lead with Bluffton. The squad also did well in the NEIAC tournament by posting a second place finish. During the season, the members of the team accomplished a rather remarkable feat, in that they never lost a singles match. Individual standouts included John Westerman, Mark Stegemoeller, and Luke Grossman. Aptly enough, the top doubles team was the brother combination of Don and Art Scherer. The outlook for next year is extremely bright with eleven of the thirteen-man squad back for another good year. Although the team had a poor Sectional finish this year, maybe next year's team can take it all!

Concordia's basketball team provided their fans with many exciting moments this year while recording a 14—9 slate en route to runner-up finishes in both the City and NEIAC races. Leading the Cadets were hustling John Westerman, an All-City selection, and rookie Chuck James. "Super Soph" Mike Berning, brother Tom, and tall Ron Glusenkamp rounded out the starting line-up, who, along with some fine pinch hit performances from the bench provided the Cadets with a lot of scoring balance. The regular season was an unpredictable one as the team seemed to jell for the big games and then have a let down against easier opponents. At tournament time a Sectional crown barely eluded the basketball team in a heart-breaking overtime loss to North Side. However, with three starters and most of the bench coming back along with a good crop of sophs from the Reserve Team, the Cadets should be one of the top contenders for City and Sectional Championships next year.

Reserves Gain Experience Needed for Future

The Reserve Team, under the guidance of Coach Reinking, compiled a very commendable 12—8 record this year. Although usually playing against taller and more experienced teams, the Reserves used a scrappy man-to-man defense and good shooting and ball handling to overcome their opponents. By showing considerable talent and acquiring valuable experience, future years of success are envisioned for the members of the Reserve Team.

Frosh Compile 17—2 Record

High-scoring Eugene Parker pumps in another soft jump shot.

Although lacking the height which is usually necessary for a good team, the Freshmen Basketball Team used a lot of talent and desire to overcome this obstacle and compile an excellent 17—2 record. Undoubtedly, much of the credit must go to Coach Pinnow, who, throughout the years has worked with the incoming freshmen and molded them into highly successful squads. This year the Frosh got off to a real good start, winning their first ten games, and then highlighted the season by impressively winning the Annual Ft. Wayne Parochial Tournament.

Phil Zimmermann Leads Cindermen

With all the thrill of victories and anguish of defeats, Concordia's cindermen have concluded another season. Concordia's endeavors included such wins as a first in the annual Parochial Meet, first in one division of a Triple-Triangular Meet, and a second in the NEIC Conference Meet. Phil Zimmermann also advanced to State competition in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. This year's team had much support and backing from all individuals on the team and great coaching, which gave the team the needed boost.

Baseball Team Comes Alive at the End of the Season

After getting off to a rather slow start, the baseball team came back under the direction of Coaches Massucci and Anderson to compile a commendable 9—12 record with four of those wins coming in the last week of regular season play. Of the 12 losses an unbelievable nine were by the slim margin of only one run.Top players throughout the year for the Cadets were John Dietel, Barry Light, and John Westerman. Next year can be eagerly looked forward to since the Cadets lose only four seniors and should therefore have the nucleus for a strong team coming back.

Another broken bat single for Barry Light.

Girl's Track Scores Again

If you were a track buff around school, you no doubt knew of our great Cadet girl's track team. This year the GAA track, advised by Mrs. Elizabeth Obermueller, saw another successful year. Hard practice starting the beginning of March got the girls in condition to place third in the Districts, second in the Regionals, and ninth in the State track meet.

Bikes Burn Rubber in 1st Race

Janel Colby presents a challenge to winner Ramsey.

Homecoming this year was made into an all-weekend affair. Thursday night initiated the first annual tricycle race and PowderPuff football game. Senior Keith Ramsey won the tricycle race while the Junior girls beat the Senior gals in the football game. Friday night saw the judging of the class floats, a pre-game bon fire, and the sensationally tense football game. Saturday night topped off the gala affair with a dance and the crowning of Mary French as Homecoming Queen. Court attendants were Becky Bannister and Barb Meyer, Seniors, and Roni Beukema and Debbie K. Smith, Juniors. Let it be said that this years Homecoming will be most memorable for years to come.

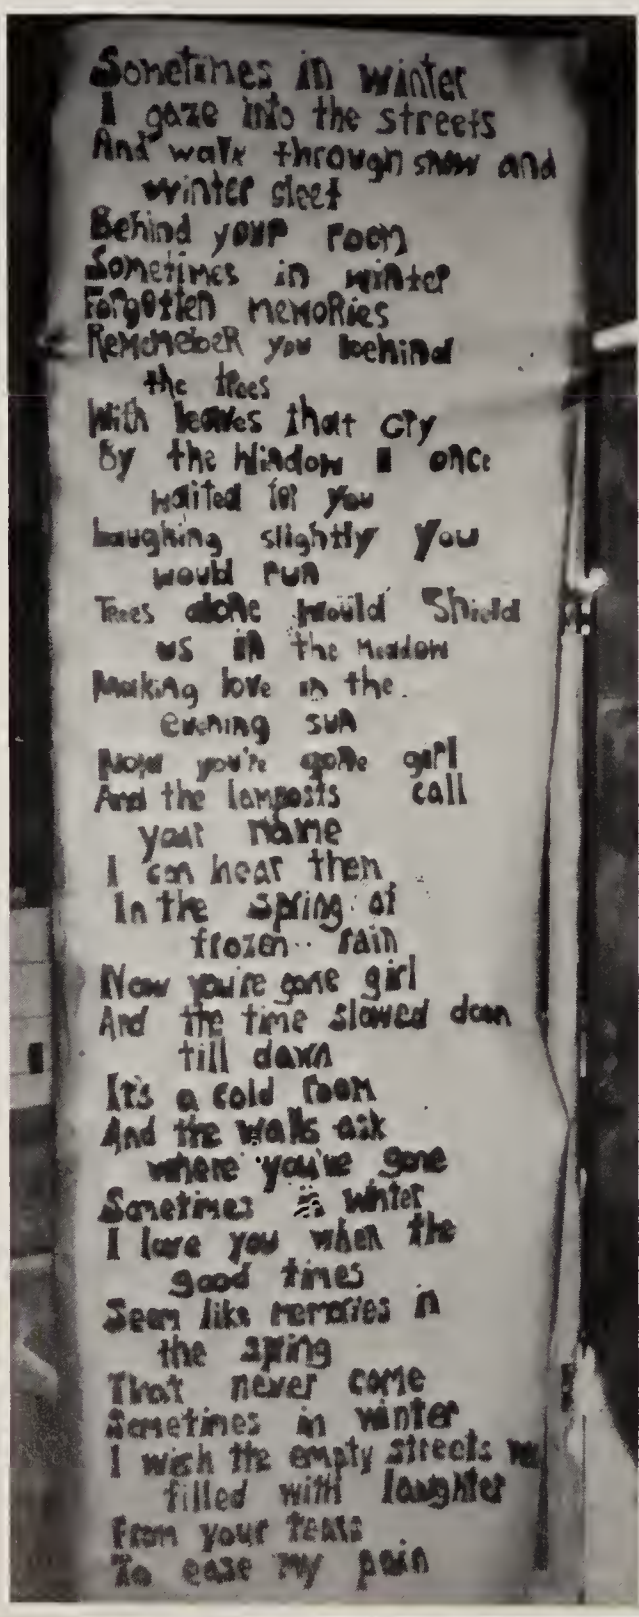
Dreams Come True "Sometimes in Winter"

Being with others added a little extra enjoyment.



Sometimes in winter
I gaze into the streets
And walk through snow and winter sleet
Behind your room
Sometimes in winter
Forgotten memories
Remember you behind
the trees
With leaves that cry
By the window I once waited for you
Laughing slightly you would run
Trees alone would shield
us in the meadow Making love in the evening sun
Now you're gone girl
And the lampposts call your name
I can hear them
In the spring of frozen rain
Now you're gone girl
And the time slowed down
till dawn
It's a cold room
And the walls ask
where you've gone
Sometimes in winter
I love you when the good times
Seem like memories in the spring
That never come
Sometimes in winter
I wish the empty streets we filled with laughter
From your tears
To ease my pain

How do you put a feeling into words? Soft music, happy couples, and a quaint 1890 setting will only happen "Sometimes in Winter". The mood was set by softly glowing lampposts, frosty Christmas trees, old-fashioned store fronts, a vibrant sunrise, and the music of the Dick Brown Orchestra which added the final touch to a dreamy atmosphere.

An Evening to Dine and Dance

The annual Officers' Ball was held on March 20 at the Sheraton Hotel. The military officers and their dates began the enchanting evening with a formal dinner which was followed by a talk by Mr. Weber. Lieutenant-Colonel Niel Frame, Master of Ceremonies then began the dancing which concluded the evening's activities.

An eerie and mysterious atmosphere pervaded Dark of the Moon, a play dealing with elements of the supernatural. Miss Shrubsall expertly directed this production. A special Toy Box Theater, aimed primarily at children, originated at CLHS this year. This group's first production, Pinocchio, was given for children in Parkview and at the Fine Arts Festival.

The class of 1971 was honored at their Senior Banquet on June 4. Sponsored by the Junior class and its president, Pete Mahlock, it was held on the Landing at John's Gold Mine. The master of ceremonies for the event was the Dean of Student Affairs, Mr. Earl Westrick. He introduced us to the speaker of the evening. With about ninety per cent of the senior class in attendance, the dinner consisted of tossed salad, swiss steak, mashed potatoes, corn and pie for dessert. Mr. Westrick summed up the year and the night with some unforgettable thoughts about the class of 1971.

Lu-Hi Voice Covers Year In the School Paper

The 1970-71 staff of the Lu-Hi Voice kept the students of Concordia High up on what was happening during the academic year to the school's students, faculty, and the world around them. Led by editor Eunice Schroeder and a rookie faculty adviser, Miss Dianne Schrubsall, the staff produced approximately one issue per month. Special issues were written for Homecoming, Christmas, and the basketball sectionals. Space was sold for the Valentine's Day issue in February so that young lovers could print coded messages of love to their friends. The paper this year took a growing interest in school affairs by including in several of their issues space for letters to the editor pertaining to the problems at Concordia. Articles were also printed on such subjects as the SST to provide educational opinions for the students on relevant topics concerning us as students and citizens.

The sweet and innocent Miss Dianna poses for her picture as faculty adviser to the Lu-Hi staff. New to the job this year, she adds that extra touch.

The feminine leadership is found in the editors of the Lu-Hi: Eunice Schroeder, ed.-in-chief; Marty Miller, news ed.; Cathy Swartz, asst. feature ed.; Val Harwood, asst. news ed., and Becky Von Deylon, feature ed.

What is smarkle? It's a spicy mix of smile and sparkle sprinkled in the personalities of our five varsity cheerleaders. Coming back from camp sporting a spirit stick and the "best squad in camp" award, they charged head-on into an exciting year of ballgames, wrestling meets, and pep sessions. Whether leading the fans on a rainy night at North Side or staying late after school to practice, our "peppy five" didn't ever quit. The Reserve and Frosh cheerleaders were also enthusiastic as they led the teams and underclassmen through a successful season. How great to be a cheerleader—full of pep, happiness, and most of all, smarkle!

Language Clubs Increase Knowledge with Tours

The always active Latin Club with officers M. Bohnke, T. Macke, and D. Reinking.

This year the language clubs put their emphasis on long trips which provided more background and knowledge of the language they had studied. After last years successful trip to Rome, the Latin Club once again promoted "this once in a lifetime chance" to see the historical city plus the added bonus of a pleasant stay in Munich and a train ride through the Alps. The French and German Clubs both journeyed north this year—the French Club visiting the Canadian city of Quebec and the German Club going to Frankenmuth, Michigan. The three clubs also had other activities, such as end-of-the-year banquets.

New Afro-American Club Is Formed

Enthusiasm was the big response of the announcement of the news that an Afro-American Culture Club was being formed at CLHS. The club was originated for the purpose of uniting the students and educating them in the field of black history. The members celebrated the birthdays of important blacks, observed a Negro History Week, and discussed racial problems. The club hopes to introduce a black studies program at CLHS.

Y-Teens Find Service Is "in"

It was a very good year for the Y-Teens! This group of enthusiastic girls had birthday parties for welfare children and participated in the city-wide "Toys for Tots" project by decorating big toy boxes. To add a little fun to the year, a dance was included as part of the activities.

Dedication Is Spice of Life

Service, fellowship, and fun are the three key factors for the members of the Junior Red Cross. Under the direction of President Terry Armstrong, they brightened the hearts of many by giving parties for the people of the Allen County Nursing Home, Veteran's Hospital, and Fort Wayne Children's Home. Reaching out to others was their goal this year, and the club members can certainly look back on many fulfilling moments and be proud because they did achieve that goal.

Talented Actors in Thespian Society

The International Thespian Society is a welcomed honor to the students and faculty sponsors who are involved in the Drama Club. The organization includes as members students who have given of their time and talents to act and produce the Drama Club productions. Membership is earned by each student. Each student is awarded points for each role he plays according to its importance. When he has accumulated enough points, he is inducted as a member of this honorary society. CLHS is just one of many schools in the country to have a chapter. It is indeed an honor for the students, advisors, members, and the entire school to have such talent and to be internationally acclaimed for it.

Art Service Club Dedicated to Helping School

The Art Service Club was one of those organizations that found pleasure in knowing they had done a good job and then expected no acclaim for their hard work. Under the direction of faculty advisor Milton Heinrich and president John Groth, they provided appropriate decorations for many important school functions. Working into the wee hours of the morning they donated their ability to make the school affairs more memorable.

The Drama Club has not only given its creative and talented work for our school but also for others. We have been blessed with such fine productions as "Up the Down Staircase" and "Dark of the Moon". After the long hours of memorizing lines, difficult practice, and sleepless nights, these talented actors have put on some of the best productions ever seen at Concordia. These productions are not just the result of fine acting but of commitments and contributions of the fantastic producers and the many committees: make-up, publicity, props, sets, and costumes.

Jerry christens the inexperienced teacher.

This newly formed club has been one of the most active at CLHS. From learning to ski to developing the experienced skiers, the members have put much time in on this thrilling sport. Throughout the skiing season, the members, under the direction of Mr. Henke and Mr. Gemmer, have undertaken a number of ski trips to the snow filled slopes.

The members of the Rocket Club built and shot their own rockets and then recorded the data for further study. In its second year at CLHS, the club's activities included providing half-time entertainment at a football game and competing with other schools in rocket-firing contests.

The Photography Club Focuses on Fun

Pictured above are the members of the Photography Club. They are: from left to right, D. Wyss, B. Swain, J. Moehring, J. Knoblauch, faculty advisor Mr. Kenneth Kraemer, and B. Brooks.

The small but ambitious Photography Club found hours of enjoyment in extending their knowledge of the difficult art of picture taking. Not only did they take their own pictures, but they also developed and processed them. The experience gained from the club will undoubtedly be beneficial to the members in their future endeavors with photography.

In addition to the regular classroom instruction of the ROTC program at Concordia, there are various extracurricular organizations and clubs which interested cadets may join.

For those frosh cadets who wanted to learn extra drilling maneuvers, there was the Freshmen Drill Team commanded by First Lt. Paul Meyer and Second Lt. Terry Cook. Led by First Lt. Keith Jackson, the Precision Drill Team concentrated on more complicated drilling.

Under the direction of Major Kim Weber, the Snap Squad continued its tradition of excellent performances, most notably by winning the drill competition at Frankfort. The members of the Officers' Club spent much time and effort improving our military program this year.

The Rifle Team, led by Capt. Tom Hitzeman, participated in various matches with other area schools.

Guided by Becky Schaefer, the Girls' Drill Team gave excellent performances at a few home basketball games and at drill meets.

Well-Rounded Club for Tomorrow's Religion World

Concordia has a lot of reasons to be proud of the Workers for Christ of 1970 and 1971. A major reason for such good results was this year's officers. They were President Jeanne Burger, Vice-President John Denninger, and Secretary-Treasurer Cindy Savage. The club benefited those students interested in Christ's ministry to others. Faith was continually strengthened by Christian Fellowship in the many activities that included assisting the school by giving morning devotions and by serving through projects. They not only found enjoyment in being together, but in serving.

Concordia Debate Club Speaks with Authority

A Debate Club was begun this year at Concordia. Members of the Debate Club competed against other school's Debate Clubs in many speech tournaments. We had many winners in the categories of poetry and essays. Those Concordia students who like to talk should consider this club in the future.

Members left to right are: C. Harms, N. Hartman, D. Shrubshall, S. Walker, D. Hendricksen, D. Erwin, K. Jackson, K. Gerke, R. Hinck, L. Hoppe, H. Toenges.

Students who show above-average interest and skill in the language arts form Concordia's English honor society, Gamma Rho Delta. The twenty-five members of this "reading, writing, and rhetoric" society meet to discuss literature, drama, and art, under the supervision of sponsors Mr. Kettles and Mr. Jordan. New members are initiated at an annual spring banquet.

Faculty Advisors Chuck Henke and Diane Shrubsall watch with anticipation.

Serendipity Seventy—One! It was a night to remember. The senior class of 1971 presented one of the greatest collections of comedy and musical acts on June 5, 1971 in the school gym. Nights and weeks of rehearsals, meetings, writing, rewriting, and practicing went into this "happening". Headed by Miss Melanie Henke, the review was a combination of nearly twenty skits performed by individuals, groups, and the entire cast. Faculty advisors were Miss Diane Shrubsall, and Mr. Charles Henke. The kick-off number for the review was an entire cast production to the tune of "Happy Days are Here Again", which included a chorus line in hot pants! To end it all, the entire cast reappeared to sing some oldies but goodies, Jim Lohman singing "Joy to the World", "All we are Saying" and Betsy Stauffer bringing on the tears with "We've Only Just Begun".

The bad witch, Teresa Albers, is melting in "The Wizard of Oz".

Jim Dinkel, Bob Kennedy, and Jim Lohman present some Hee Haw music.

We've Really Only Just Begun!

The entire cast and a chorus line opened it all with 'Happy Days Are Here Again"

The cast joins Betsy in ending with "We've Only Just Begun"

The Master of Ceremonies, Steve Priebe, introduced the skits.

Debbie Dilts and Mark Hesterman debate woman's liberation.

Baccalaureate, Graduation,

June 6, 1971; June 10, 1971; and that was the end at Concordia High School for the Class of 1971. Baccalaureate was held in the Senior College Gymnasium, with Dr. Rakow as the speaker. The baccalaureate was the second all-city one for all Lutheran graduates. Graduation was held at Zollner Stadium on Thursday, June 10, at 8:00 P.M. The Welcoming Address was given by Miss Debra Widenhofer, Salutatorian, with the Valedictory Address given by Miss Nancy Dray. The featured speaker who delivered the Commencement Address was The Rev. Michael Stelmachowicz, Superintendent of the Lutheran High School Association of Greater Detroit. Diplomas were presented to 215 graduating seniors by the President of the Board of Directors, Mr. Karl Mueller. The senior class this year had been a different kind of mixture of students. It was a class who was aware of the world problems around them, and a class who genuinely cared about the person sitting next to him. It was a class who took many things more seriously than ever before. Challenge was the key word for many of the individuals. They took a deep look into the future and in what it held, and hoped with optimism that they could make it a better place to live.

A look at the graduates as they listen to the sermon at Baccalaureate.

The Rev. Micheal Stelmachowicz delivers the Commencement Address to the graduating seniors at Zollner's Stadium.

End It All for the Class of '71

Joining the audience in the Graduation hymn are members of the graduation class.

March on, my son.
Though men may shout that war is here and peace will never again be near
March on, my son, march on.
When no one seems to understand and apathy permeates the land
March on, my son, march on.
If you call a friend but he won't stay and it seems God won't answer your prayer
March on, my son, march on.
And when you feel like giving up because your best ain't good enough
March on, my son, march on.
For God put you here so he could say you brightened someone's dreary day
March on, my son, march on.

About the Cover. Luminarian. That's a strange name for a yearbook. John Groth took it upon himself to research the name before he designed the cover. He found out that about 15 or 20 years ago the faculty had a contest to name the book, and Luminarian was the winning choice. This name was chosen because it comes from the word illumine. Concordia should be a light to the community. Therefore the cover is designed to represent rays of light shining from a single point, or CLHS.

As the members of the 1970-1971 staff of the Luminarian, we have put together 180 pages of the way we remember the past school year. Its impossible to cover everything in only 180 pages, but we hope our efforts will open your mind to your memories of Concordia in this school year.

A special thanks to everyone who wandered into room 108 during third hour and helped us out when they could. I'd also like to thank the teachers for being so understanding when staff members had to be excused from class, and to all the students who posed for the pictures. This book was not written by only 13 students, but 900 plus.

How tall we are.
We've learned so much.
Everything it seems,
but how to stay in touch.
Rod McKuen

We have the power to make this the best generation in the history of mankind or to make it the last.

We hurriedly ran from the safety of schoolyards in search of a better more beautiful world.
One day we turned in the road to find our new worlds were all in our minds.

I find the greatest thing in the world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving.
